

Our company's core values are Honesty, Integrity, Trust and Teamwork. We are filled with individuals who not only have those internal values but are also hard working, have pride in what they do and an indescribable desire to serve others in a way no one else can. We are looking for the kind of people that share our values and intense drive but also have an undeniable sense of urgency. They are able to think quick on their feet and perform at their best ability in a fast paced environment.

We provide emergency services as well as the reconstruction to properties that have been damaged by water, mold, sewage, fire, or any other hazard. Every day is filled with different challenges and solutions.

Does this sound like something you would be interested in? See below on specifics of the job:

Position Summary / Purpose

Create high levels of customer satisfaction by exceeding their expectations and fulfilling the company's contractual obligations through the timely and profitable delivery of restoration services.

Facilitate the timely and profitable delivery of all services required to rapidly return customer's property to pre-loss condition, minimizing repairs and downtime following property damage.

Principle Duties and Responsibilities

- Exceed established targets for responding to and completing estimates on losses
- Maintain strategic relationships with vendors and subcontractors
- Exceed profitability targets on managed projects
- Plan and execute projects to completion
- Obtain written contracts and payment terms for projects change orders
- Maintain efficient and accurate flow of production paperwork from the job site to administration
- Coordinate resource planning of technicians, laborers and subcontractors with scheduler
- Maintain market leadership through continuous implementation of state-of-care technology as it pertains to the delivery of our services
- Coordinate estimates from subcontractors
- Order materials required for projects and coordinate delivery to job site
- Ensure and monitor materials usage within budget and scope amount
- Maintain effective communication with customers and all involved parties – including third-party owners, building engineers, property managers, tenants, etc.
- Perform property inspections and complete reports
- Obtain Certified of Completion and COS from customers within twenty four ours of project completion

Additional Duties and Responsibilities

- Maintain project files
- Attend and assist in conducting company meetings
- Perform production work
- Perform minor repairs on company equipment and vehicles

Decision Rights and Authority

Manage the budget for projects

Working Relationships and Scope

- Works with Estimators to review and oversee job estimates
- Works with Operations Manager in hiring and discharge of production division personnel
- Coordinates with Marketing for follow-up and job evaluation with customers
- Coordinates with customer and administration function for timely collection of project payment

Performance Competencies

- Oral Communication – The individual speaks clearly and persuasively in positive or negative situations. Effective in one-on-one and small group situations. Adaptable and able to think on his/her feet. Able to effectively communicate with customers in understandable terms.
- Written Communication – Writes clear, precise, well organized estimates, proposals and emails. The individual edits work for spelling, uses appropriate vocabulary and has impeccable grammar. Is able to read and interpret written information.
- Team Building – Achieves cohesion and effective team spirit with peers, subordinates and subcontractors. Sustains a climate characterized by open, honest relationships where differences are constructively resolved rather than ignored, suppressed or denied. Shares credit for accomplishments.
- Planning & Organizing – Has the ability to see the overall job from start to finish. Knowing the steps to be taken, resources and time required, can effectively create a timeline for the job. Coordinates plans with other managers.
- Integrity – Iron clad. Does not cut corners. Puts company interests above self. Earns trust of co-workers. Is intellectually honest; does not play games.
- Excellence – Sets high, 'stretch' standards of performance. Demonstrates low tolerance for mediocrity. Sets clear, fair and aggressive goals for self and others, encouraging individual initiative.
- Customer Focus – Combines empathy for customer's situation with time and budget constraints to effectively manage and exceed customer's expectations.
- Technology – Regularly uses standard word processing and spreadsheet software tools to enhance efficiency and accuracy of work performed. Effectively uses communication devices and technology to collect, review and forward field activity reporting.

Qualifications - Knowledge, Skills and Abilities

Education and Experience

High School diploma or GED plus three (3) to five (5) years of experience managing construction or restoration projects and supervising crews. Associate (2 year) degree or bachelors (4 year) degree in business or construction management preferred. Advanced knowledge of building construction, remodeling or restoration. Understands the relationship between direct labor and profitability.

Technical skills

Proficient technical skills, experience and certification in the areas of service the company provides. Organizational skills, to include time management, effect in scheduling resources for maximum efficiency and creating work orders and materials to set up employees for successful job completion.

Mathematical skills

Adequate math skills. Able to quickly and effectively translate remaining work into manpower planning, project completion times, and review and assess labor time reporting. Effectively project job costs based on work remaining.

Negotiation skills

Wins by creating advocates, not enemies, when negotiating.

Computer skills

Demonstrates intermediate to advanced proficiency in the use of computers and computer software, especially MS Word and Excel. Experience with Xactimate software is a plus.

Listening skills

Effective in receiving feedback and input from customers and employees, probing for additional information or unspoken issues and providing timely response.

Physical Demands

The physical demands described below are representative of those that must be met to successfully perform the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

While performing the duties of this job, the employee is regularly required to sit, use hands to finger, handle or feel, reach with hands and arms, and talk or hear. The employee is frequently required to stand and walk. The employee must regularly lift and/or move up to 10 pounds and frequently lift and/or move up to 25 pounds.

Working Conditions

The work of this position is predominantly carried out in a shop or job site environment. Daily exposure to the shop where vehicles and equipment are housed and maintained is expected. Employee will encounter facilities where standing water and sewage are present, heat is unavailable due to lack of utilities, fire damage has occurred and mold or other organic growth exists.